

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, From the Custer State Park Buffalo Roundup to the Black Hills Photo Shootout, the last week of September provides an incredible number of opportunities for photographers to capture in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, South Dakota's autumn panorama of color extends statewide from the intimate valleys of Sica Hollow and Newton Hills, to the chalk bluffs of the Missouri River, to the aspen-lined scenic byways of the Black Hills; and,

Whereas, Stampeding bison, herded by cowboys and cowgirls on horseback, present photographers with unique and unforgettable Old West pageantry during the Custer State Park Buffalo Roundup; and,

Whereas, The annual Black Hills Photo Shootout will bring together photographers from across the continent to practice and advance their skills and to capture and share the beauty of the Black Hills and South Dakota:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 26 through October 2, 2011 as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.
